

Recycled Fashion

Recycled textiles can be fashionable and unique without costing the earth.

Choosing to buy recycled products ensures our natural resources are not wasted. Don't throw away that favourite, old garment. With a touch of creativity, we will turn it into something new, fresh, stylish and unique, without compromising quality, fashion or the environment.

Are you looking for that dream dress or an outfit for a special occasion? Stylish? Eye-catching? Personal? A statement of YOU?

Then look no further! Romantique Couture is a comprehensive fashion design and dressmaking service. We provide everything from alterations and recycled outfits, to extravagant, bespoke Wedding dresses, or stylish Evening gowns.

Everything we create is unique, specially designed by Angy Morton, a professional fashion designer and dressmaker. Angy's style is all embracing; influenced by anything that comes her way - the forever changing weather and dramatic landscape of her home in the Lake District, the delicate shapes and shades of nature, or the fantasy of architecture.

Log into our website, or Angy's Blog, for ideas and updates, dates of forthcoming catwalk shows or exhibitions.

Spectrum in Four Seasons Autumn Collection

I have drawn inspiration for my new bespoke collection from the Four Seasons - the changes in colour, atmosphere, sounds and even traditions as the year progresses: the chilly colours of winter with its dark nights - from the magical 'Aurora Borealis' through to 'Candelmas'. 'Melt Water' pours off the fells to signal the arrival of Spring - rejuvenation, optimism, the fun of 'Apple Noddy' (April Fools day). Summer heralds long, sunny days, themes of yellow - 'Midnight Sun', and 'Wild Fire'. Autumn marks a cooling in temperature but not in colour, for red is now in ascendancy, from berries to leaves, toadstools to bonfires. My autumn designs are 'Harvest Moon' and 'Hibernation'.
